Summary of Institution Mission and Student Achievement

Agora University is a pioneering global Orthodox Christian University dedicated to building bridges between Orthodox Christianity and the Humanities to address the challenges of the contemporary world via distance learning. Agora University is committed to building a community of inspired students through innovative learning, open discussion, and research to become whole persons, and creative leaders to advance their communities. We welcome students from all faiths and backgrounds and provide them the intellectual freedom to express their diverse voices in open dialogue while preserving and upholding the particularity of our Orthodox Christian identity.

Agora University validates the success of its mission when our students succeed. This verifies that all the University efforts in Institutional Effectiveness and Strategic Planning are effective in driving and nurturing a diverse body of students to become holistic persons who are able to impact their communities and address the contemporary challenges. To measure student achievement, we monitor retention and graduation rates, academic excellence and satisfaction, and personal growth.
